Some celebrated performers from across the world are making an appearance in a Maple Ridge music room. You are cordially invited to experience these special musical events.

The unique opportunity to hear these stars perform in Maple Ridge, has dictated a scheduling change from our regular Saturday night performances to a Friday and a Monday.

Candlelight Concert Series 2013 – 2014

Saturday, October 19, 8 pm

Gryphon Trio

The well-known Canadian ensemble is a two-time Juno Award winner, and one of the world's pre-eminent piano trios.

Sunday, November 17, 3 pm

Krystyna Tucka, piano

A native of Poland, Krystyna has studied, won awards and performed in Europe, Africa and North America. She now resides in Maple Ridge.

Friday, February 8, 8 pm

Maxim Bernard, piano

In commemoration of the start of the First World War the young Quebec pianist has chosen a thoughtful program of piano music that was written during that era.

Saturday, March 29, 8 pm

Guy Few, trumpet, corno, piano

Nadina Mackie Jackson, bassoon.

“Completely engaging from the moment they walk on stage” (THE CHRONICLE, Oliver BC) is how critics and audiences consistently describe the duo.

Monday, April 21, 8 pm

Daniel Mueller-Schott, cello

Simon Trpceski, piano

Daniel enthralled the Maple Ridge audience as a young and upcoming cellist in 2004. Now he is one of the world's very few who have reached the top. It is an honour to welcome him back in our series.
