

Government House, Ottawa,

Monday the 1st day of December 1890

Present:

His Excellency

The Governor General.

In Council.

His Excellency was pleased to lay before the Council the Report and notes of evidence of the Honorable Mr. Justice Drake in the case of an Indian named Jumah who was tried before him at the recent Assizes holden at New Westminster in the Province of British Columbia for the crime of murder and having been convicted thereof, was sentenced to Death--such sentence to be carried into execution on Friday the sixteenth day of January 1891.

His Excellency also laid before the Council

The circumstances of this case having been fully considered by His Excellency in Council, together with the Report of the Minister of Justice a douse to the commutation of the said sentence,

His Excellency has thought fit to order, And it is hereby ordered, that the law be allowed to take its course

John George
Clerk, Privy Council